Creative Expression: Art and Writing Camp

Mon - Fri, 9 AM - 12 PM, Virtual

For rising 5th-7th graders

The goal of the Art and Writing Camp is to provide students with a space for creative outlet and expression. Lessons will include the observation and discussion of various creative mediums, including but not limited to illustration, sculpture, poetry, and short fiction.

Students will be provided with the time and space to explore their unique artistic interests and styles during free creative periods. They will also receive instruction in the technical skills that art forms are built upon, including but not limited to lessons in grammar and the foundational elements of art.

Activities include but are not limited to: character and world creation, ekphrastic poetry, flash fiction, gesture drawing, character and self-portraits, recycled sculpture, and art presentations.
